

Reward Pathway Activates Motivation/Mesolimbic Pathway

The Mesolimbic System also has something to do with motivation. So motivational properties. Why is that a big deal? So, let's say that you are not experiencing that high. That you're not feeling that pleasure. The Mesolimbic system is the one that tells you. "Hey, go get it". It's the one that is basically firing to say, "Get off your bed and go find 'X'". Does that make sense? So, if this right here is wired a certain way, then lo and behold, guess what? you may have to end up rewiring.
