At Project Rescue we are careful not to set our sights too high for the men who come to us for help. This is because of the damaging effects of the drugs and other sins. We are glad to settle for a member never turning back to crime and returning to the criminal justice system. For others, we are happy to see them as faithful fathers and husbands. We are pleased when a man holds onto his job for a respectable length of time. Hearing that a graduate is faithful in his attendance of the services of the church is very rewarding.

We are glad to report that one of our graduates has done all the above, and so much more!! I received a call from Project Rescue graduate, Darrell McCauley that he was to be appointed as a deacon of the Northwest church of Christ in Huntsville, Alabama! We were all so excited that we loaded up and took the whole group to witness this great event on Sunday, January 15th, as Darrell was appointed a deacon.

We had been following Darrell's progress since he graduated on August 17, 2014. We were hearing that he was continuing in the faith, working the same job, taking care of his family, and being faithful in his church attendance. Darrell has surpassed all of our expectations! Good reports like this one is what keeps us all going.

Like Onesimus and John Mark (Philemon 1:11; 2 Timothy 4:11), Darrell McCauley was once unprofitable, but became "profitable" again to the Lord and us all.

We are well aware that one of the reasons for Darrell's spiritual successes is the support he received when he returned to his home congregation, the Northwest church of Christ. These brethren are to be commended!

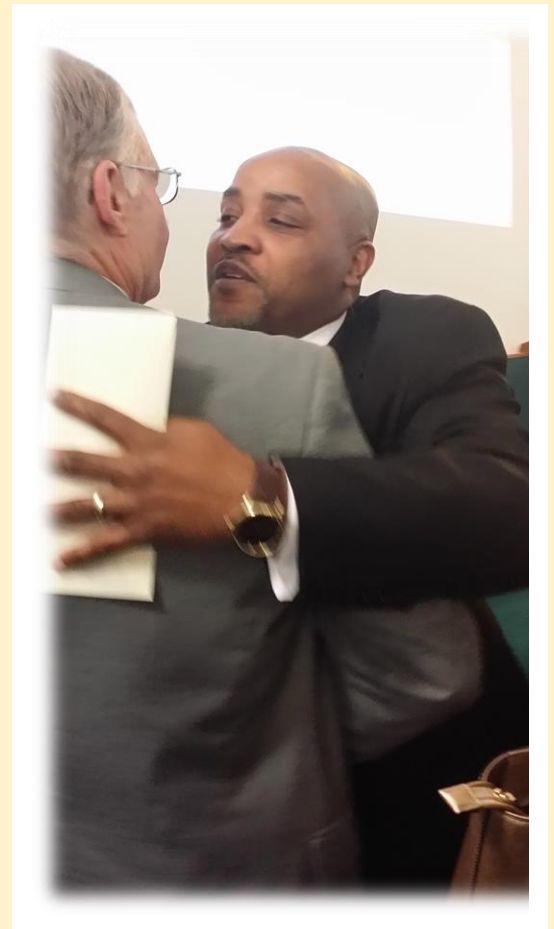

We are so thankful for Darrell, his supportive wife and family and the Northwest congregation. This is a perfect example of how it's supposed to work.

To God be the glory!

The leadership of the Northwest church of Christ

Congratulations to Darrell and his wife Kristy from the Baggetts and the Crockers.

And a hug from Cecil Green.
